Woman Saves Home For Aged Pensioner

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A 90-year-old man living alone on a meager pension lost his rural home at a sheriff's sale Wednesday. But the woman who bought it firmly told him he could live there until his death.

Miss Rose Farber was an unexpected bidder for the three-story stone house and 18 surrounding acres where Cadwallader Clegg has lived for 50 years.

Quietly announcing her bids, she finally got the home and land for $10,000. Clegg's creditor's bowed out at $9,700. Miss Farber said she represented a real estate investment company. She didn't say what the company plans to do with the rundown property.

But she told the men gathered at the county courthouse for the sale: "Mr. Clegg will be allowed to occupy the house as long as he lives."

The massed junior choir, accompanied by Bonnie Mintz of Salem, will sing "Praise to the Lord the Almighty" under the direction of Mrs. William Zimmann of New Springfield.

Senior choirs of Leetonia, Washingtonville and Columbiana will combine to sing "O God Our Help in Ages Past," directed by Miss DeErla Smith of Leetonia.

Mrs. Dan Weber of Salem will direct the choirs of Holy Trinity and Emmanuel in "Built on the Rock."

All of the choirs will process to the auditorium stage singing "Beautiful Savior." Other hymns will include "A Mighty Fortress" and "God of Our Fathers."

Absentee, Disabled Ballots to Total 500

Civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots issued for Tuesday's general election are expected to total nearly 500 at the deadline this afternoon at 4.

Persons who obtain the ballots have until noon Friday to return them to the County Election Board office. The ballots will be distributed to the proper precincts when the board passes out election supplies for the polling places.

At the start of business this morning, the Election Board had issued 462 of the civilian ballots. It also had distributed 97 under the Ohio "Soldier Voting" law to persons in the armed forces or civilians residing outside the United States.

Under state law, the so-called "Soldier Ballots" may be issued until noon Saturday. They may be returned as late as noon on election day.

Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the board, said the demand for early ballots is "heavy" but will not break any records. He pointed out the board issued 1,198 in all for the 1956 general election — 900 civilian ballots and 298 to service personnel.

Defense Rests In Police Trial

Two Officers Deny Burglary of Store

LISBON — Delays in the progress of the burglary trial of Ira Cunningham and Robert Carroll at Lisbon this morning made uncertain whether the case would go to the jury this afternoon.

The defense rested Wednesday afternoon in the trial of the two former East Liverpool police officers charged with a 1952 entering of the Smith and Phillips Co. Store in East Liverpool — one of nine indictments handed down against seven officers in 1956.

Prosecutor G. William Brokaw asked to recall a defense witness — Lawrence Calder of East Liverpool — this morning when court convened, and a brief discussion was held with Judge Raymond Buzzard on the objection by the defense counsel, Atty. Hugo Alexander of Steubenville.

Calder was a character witness for the defense yesterday afternoon.

Judge Buzzard granted the prosecutor permission to recall Calder, but the witness was not in the courthouse. Brokaw said Calder had been notified last night to appear.

Court recessed until 10:05 to await Calder's arrival, then re-convened when he did not appear.

The Rev. M. Rudolph Miller of the First Presbyterian Church at East Liverpool took the stand as a rebuttal witness for the prosecution, testifying on his knowledge of the reputation of Robert McBane, ex-officer who has pleaded guilty to eight of the nine police indictments.

McBane is the state's key witness in this trial, testifying that he, Carroll Cunningham and Dallas Bishop, former special officer, entered the store Oct. 19, 1952, and took out merchandise.

Rev. Miller said people had been "shocked" at the disclosures of McBane's activities, but that his reputation for truth and veracity had not suffered because he had confessed to the crimes.

The defense has maintained

Gas Rate Increase of Half-Cent Due Dec. 1

Higher cost of natural gas from suppliers will result in an increase of one-half cent a thousand cubic feet in the gas rate in Salem, the Ohio Fuel Gas Company announced today.

The increases, effective Dec. 1, also will change gas rates in 67 other Ohio communities under provisions of fuel cost clauses in existing contracts.

The boost affects customers in nearly every Columbiana and Mahoning County community served by Ohio Fuel.

Three American Scientists Win Nobel Prize

Discoveries Opened New Avenues In Cancer Research

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Three American scientists won the 1958 Nobel Prize in Medicine and Physiology today for solving some of the basic riddles of heredity.

Their discoveries were credited by a member of the prize-awarding body with opening new avenues in cancer research.

The winners are Dr. George Wells Beadle, 55, of the California Institute of Technology; E. L. Tatum, 49, of New York's Rockefeller Institute; and Joshua Lederberg, 33, of the University of Wisconsin.

Will Share Prize Money

The Royal Caroline Institute of Medicine said half the $41,420 prize would go jointly to Beadle and Tatum "for their discovery that genes act by regulating specific chemical processes."

The other half went to Lederberg "for his discoveries concerning genetic recombination and the organization of the genetic material of bacteria."

"Genetic recombination" is a term for sexual fertilization in the bacterial world. Lederberg found that from the geneticists' point of view, "this corresponds exactly to the normal sexual fertilization in higher organisms."

Led To Medical Discoveries

Describing the work of the prize winners, Prof. Torbjorn Caspersen of the Royal Institute said the research of Beadle and Tatum in the early 1940s "led to the discovery that the individual gene acts by directing individual steps in the course of chemical synthesis in the cell. All the substances in the cell are built up step by step in a long series of synthesizing processes."

"The individual steps are governed by individual genes by their regulation of the production of specific enzymes for each separate step."

Caspersen, himself a world authority on genetics, said this discovery "offered the first chance to understand the mode of action of the genes" and is one of the foundations of modern genetics.

Their research was based largely on a red bread mold called neurospora crassa, which Beadle described as "one of the most useful genetic guinea pigs."

Any strain of this mold can be multiplied a million times in a couple of days without genetic change.

Using swiftly multiplying bacteria as genetic guinea pigs is viewed as one of the great advances in genetics.

Army Officer Pleads Innocent to Charges

FT. JACKSON, S.C. (AP) — First Lt. Gerald L. Wheatley, 23, of Bridgeton, N.J., pleaded innocent today to three charges of assault and battery, two of conduct unbecoming an officer and one of mistreatment of recruits.

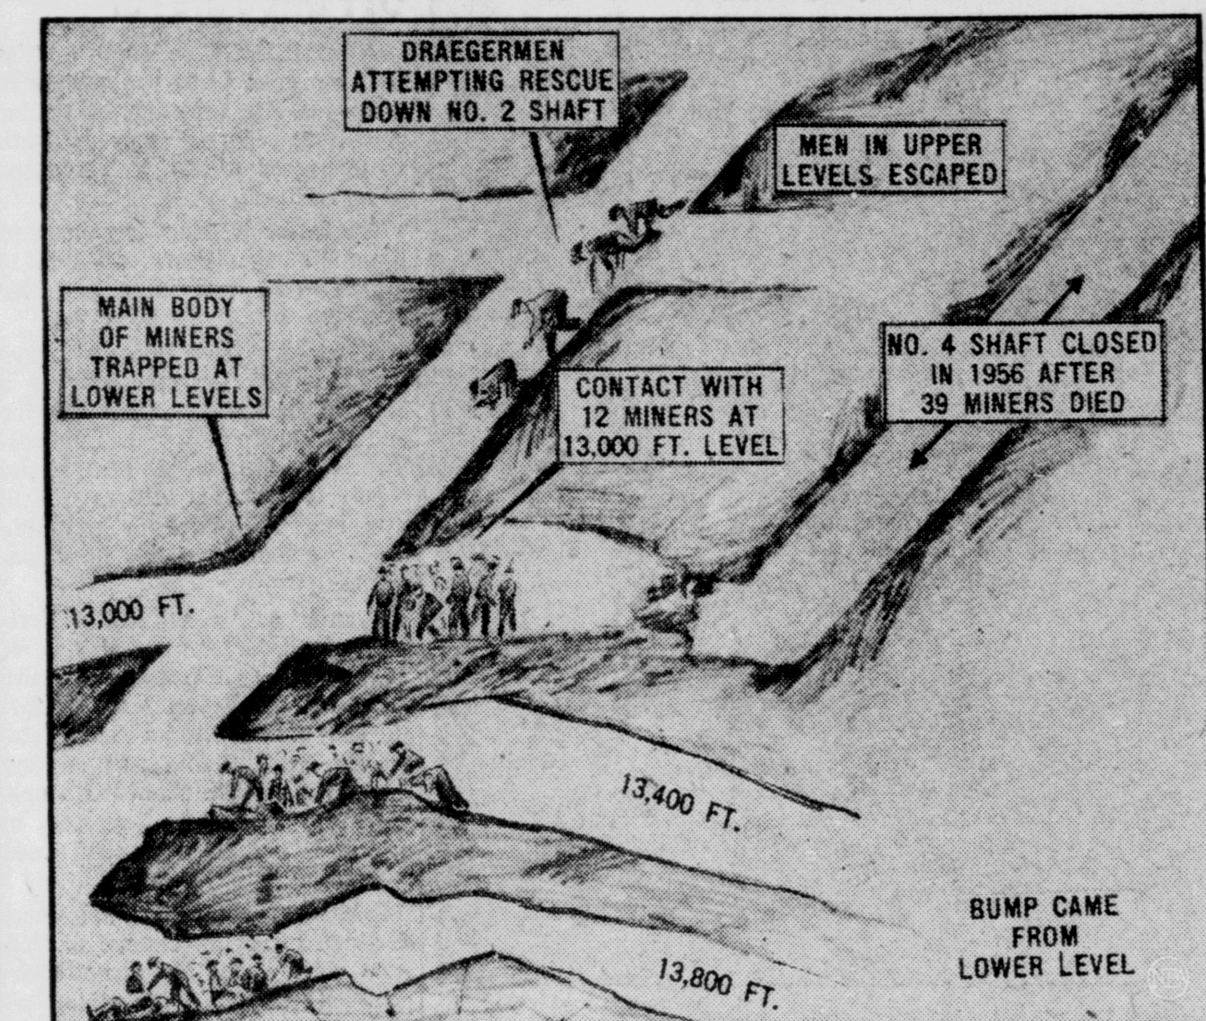

Wheatley's general court-martial is the third in two weeks as results of rugged punishment imposed on recruits in the training company he commanded at this Army post last summer.

Convicted previously were M. Sgt. George Sovie, 20, of Ogdensburg, N.Y., and Sgt. L.C. Charles Moman, 28, of Empire, Ala. Each was reduced one grade in rank and fined $450 and $300 respectively.

Sovie top sergeant in the recruit company commanded by Wheatley, claimed that Wheatley, 1956 graduate of the Citadel, South Carolina's military college, failed to assume the disciplinary and other duties that were his responsibility.

Thirty young trainees testified at the Sovie and Moman court-martial that they had been forced bodily into mess hall grease traps and made to shout obscene phrases.

Sergeants Named In Marines Mistreatment

Announcement today from Marine authorities at Parris Island, S.C., confirmed the report that an investigation is being made into the mistreatment of six Columbian County recruits from Lisbon, all members of Platoon 158, "The Steel Valley Platoon," First Training Battalion.

Milak to Pay With Life for Double Slaying

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — It took two hours and 20 minutes to reach a verdict — guilty of first degree murder, without recommendation of mercy. For James I. Milak that meant the electric chair.

The 37-year-old Hungarian immigrant was found guilty Thursday by a three-judge panel of the shooting to death of his former sweetheart, Mrs. Lillian Mikulac, 43, and her husband of four days, Steve, 35.

Their bodies were found in a ravine near Ravenna, 10 days after they disappeared from their Akron home.

Both were shot in the head. The apparent motive: Milak's jealousy of their recent marriage. When questioned about details of the shooting and shown pictures of the scene of the slayings, Milak broke into tears.

But when the verdict was read Wednesday, he was calm. Returning the verdict were Common Pleas Judges Stephen C. Colopy, Ray B. Watters and Claude V. D. Emmons.

Milak's court appointed attorneys said they would appeal.

Salem Boy, 5, 'Poor' After Heart Operation

The condition of David Allen Dimko, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dimko of 180 W. 3rd St., who underwent heart surgery in Cleveland Metropolitan General Hospital yesterday, is listed as "poor," according to hospital authorities.

The child had a good night, it was reported this morning. David was born with a congenital heart ailment and had been given a year to live if this operation was not a success. Doctors say the boy has a 50-50 chance of survival.

The operation lasted six and a half hours, hospital spokesmen said. Seventeen local blood donors made the trip to Cleveland yesterday.

treatment and forced money payments, have been identified as Arthur L. Browne, John W. Cole, John R. Hull, Richard J. Koffel, Roger A. McGaffick and Robert L. Taffin.

The Marines complained of being slapped, pushed and forced to make payments of $10 each to the instructors. They told again of the incidents when their parents visited them during graduation exercises Sept. 23.

The Lisbon members of the platoon were inducted June 19 and following 12 weeks of basic training at Parris Island, were assigned to Camp LeJeune four weeks ago.

Three sergeants, all drill instructors, have been restricted to camp while the corps conducts a formal investigation of the charges. They are being held at Camp LeJeune.

The trio is accused of taking $890 from the 69 recruits of the "Steel Valley Platoon." Military regulations don't allow for gifts to instructors from recruits.

Capt. Joe Bridges, public information officer at Parris Island, has identified the sergeants as Ralph A. J. Grant of Racine, Wis., Ronald J. Heller of Milwaukee, Wis., and Willard B. Poss of Augusta, Ga.

Bridges said the recruits themselves did not complain but that it

Evidence Given Today In Caril Fugate Trial

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Presentation of evidence begins today in the trial of Caril Fugate, 15, charged with being an accomplice of Charles Starkweather, 19, in a murder rampage last January in which 10 persons were slain in Nebraska and Wyoming.

Caril is charged with being an accomplice of Starkweather in the rifle slaying of Robert Jensen, Bennet, Neb., school boy. Starkweather was convicted of the slaying and sentenced to death in the electric chair. He admitted shooting Jensen.

Caril maintains she was not an accomplice but was a hostage, and Charles Starkweather, her attorney, told the jury she was an immature person cowed by an armed and desperate killer.

The hunt for Starkweather and Caril began after the bodies of Caril's mother, step-father and half-sister were found in their home. Caril has maintained she did not know of these deaths until she and Starkweather were captured in Wyoming.

55 Still Missing In Nova Scotia Coal Workings

Rescued Men Tell Of Praying, Singing To Keep Up Courage

SPRINGHILL, N.S. (AP) — Twelve miners brought to the surface today after being trapped nearly a week in a wrecked coal mine told of praying and singing hymns to keep up their courage as they waited out the long, dark hours.

Some of the sturdier ones told of the ordeal after their dramatic rescue early today from the Cumberland No. 2 coal mine, where they were trapped by a massive earth shift last Thursday night.

The force of the shift tossed them against the roof of the tunnel where they were working more than two miles from the mine entrance.

Buried Up To Chest

Hugh Guthrie, 31, said he was buried up to his chest but remained conscious. He said he knew some of his comrades were dying along the coal wall. Other miners dug him out.

The 12 found themselves trapped in a pocket 100 feet long and 3 feet high. By some miracle, there was no gas and some fresh air seeped in through the debris, Guthrie said.

"At first we tried to dig our own way out but soon we got so weak we had to stop," he said. "We had no food and no water since Sunday or Monday. The last thing we ate were a few crusts of bread."

"We rationed our lights and cut some batteries off the dead men but on Monday we were in darkness. I'd say Caleb Rushton kept us going."

Rushton, 35, perhaps the strongest of the group when rescuers arrived, sang hymns.

Air Became Bad

The air gradually became bad. There was no room to stand. In their struggle to stay alive when the last water was gone, they drank urine mixed with bark, they told physicians.

By Monday the men had given up hope of being rescued. Hope also had been abandoned on the surface, but the rescue crews kept digging.

Ten Wednesday rescue crews stumbled on a broken air pipe leading to the entombed men and heard the muffled voice of Gorley Kempf, 37, say:

"There are 12 of us here, come and get us. Get us water."

Soon after the men got their first sustenance in at least four days. Coffee laced with sugar and vitamins was fed to the men through a copper tube inserted in the air pipe.

The men waited while the rescue crews dug through about 60 feet of debris. Then a hole appeared in the wall of rubble that had trapped the men and the rescuers appeared.

Men Started To Cry

"We were all so happy to see them the whole bunch of us just started to cry," Guthrie said.

The rescue raised hopes that other pockets of survivors would be found in the depths where 55 miners still are missing.

Their rescue brought to 93 the number saved. Twenty-six bodies have been recovered. There were

Democratic Leader Blasts At Gov. O'Neill

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democratic State Chairman William Coleman says Republican Gov. C. William O'Neill "set a pattern for reversals, indecisiveness and timidity early in his administration which he has been unable to get away from."

In a prepared statement, Coleman said O'Neill is trying to obscure the real issues in the campaign by his charges that Ohio is in danger of being taken over by corrupt "labor bosses."

"I am sure the voters of this state will not be hoodwinked by the filleting crusaders cloak the governor has so hastily donned," Coleman said. "I am confident Ohioans will recognize the governor's ruse. He is desperately attempting to make the people forget his ho-hum record."

Coleman asserted O'Neill's campaign promises in the current campaign "have been fished out of the pile of unfulfilled commitments he made in 1956 and simply recapped."

LOAD MORE COAL

CLEVELAND (AP)—Lake Erie Coal ports loaded more bituminous coal during the week ended last Monday than they did in the similar week of 1957. A total of 1,188,805 net tons was loaded into vessels compared with 1,153,005 net tons for the similar week last year. For the season to date, however, a total of 31,753,145 net tons were loaded, a drop of 9,758,445 below a year ago the ore and coal exchange reported.

2 Alliance Men Fined On Hunting Charges

LISBON — Two Alliance residents were fined Wednesday evening by County Judge Samuel Crawford for shooting migratory waterfowl after hours.

Edmund Kunz and Forest Smith were each fined $50 and costs after they pleaded guilty.

Judge Crawford suspended the fines on condition they are not brought before him again on similar offenses.

They were cited by Kenneth Hepler, game protector.

ASKS PROBATION REPORT

CLEVELAND (AP) — Federal Judge Paul C. Weick wants a probation report on two Elyria brothers, both lawyers, before he sentences them for income tax evasion. The brothers, David P. and Harry W. Hyman, pleaded guilty. David, 39, was charged with evasion of $18,415 during 1954 and 1955. During the same period, Harry, 48, was charged with evading $13,953. Judge Weick deferred sentence Wednesday pending a probation report.

Zoe Akins, Playright, Dies In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Zoe Akins, a playwright and poet who won the Pulitzer Prize for Drama in 1935, died Wednesday night after a three-week illness. She was 72.

Among Miss Akins' successful plays were "The Greeks Had a Word for It," "The Furies," and "Mrs. January and Mr. Ex." Her poems included "The Hills Grow Smaller." She also wrote novels, one of which was "Forever Young."

Miss Akins won the Pulitzer Prize for her dramatization of "The Old Maid," a story by Edith Wharton.

Court Rejects Plea Of Police Slayer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court has refused to reconsider its rejection of Walter J. Byomin's appeal from his death sentence for killing a Wellington police officer.

The denial Wednesday exhausted Byomin's Ohio court attempts to escape execution scheduled for Nov. 7.

Attorneys for Byomin have made a plea for clemency in a hearing before the Ohio Pardon and Parole Commission. The commission will make a confidential report to Gov. C. William O'Neill who has the power to commute death sentences to life imprisonment.

Byomin was convicted of first-degree murder for the slaying of Special Officer Edmund D. Smith in Lorain County on May 4, 1957. He shot Smith after a short automobile chase. Smith was seeking to question Byomin about an argument Byomin was involved in over the attentions he had been paying to a woman.

In another action the high court declined to review refusal of Butler County courts to prevent Sheriff Paul A. Pell from giving all county towing business to only two firms. Otis Spicer appealed dismissal of his suit by lower courts, saying the sheriff's policy was damaging his business.

Nobel Winners See Pasternak Refusal Made Under Pressure

By The Associated Press
Three Western Nobel Prize-winning authors agreed today that Boris Pasternak turned down his 1958 award because of pressure from the Soviet government, not because he agreed with the Kremlin's condemnation of his work.

The 68-year-old Russian writer was awarded the $41,420 prize a week ago for his poetry and his novel, "Doctor Zhivago," which describes the loss of freedom in Soviet society. The novel is a best-seller in the West but has been suppressed in the Soviet Union.

Wednesday, after a government campaign of vilification in which the Nobel committee was accused of playing cold war politics, Pasternak cabled the Swedish Royal Academy of Letters that he was refusing the prize "because of the meaning attributed to this award in the society I live in."

"Do not take my voluntary refusal with any ill will," he added. Previously he had messaged that he was "immensely thankful, touched, proud, astonished, abashed" by the honor.

France's Albert Camus, winner of the 1957 Nobel Prize for Literature, commented, "I don't believe Pasternak refused the Nobel Prize of his own free will. . . ."

Earl Bertrand Russell, 86-year old British philosopher who won the 1950 prize, said he was "disgusted with the Russians' attitude to this from the start. Knowing the Russian way of life as we do, we may well think that Pasternak had no alternative but to reject this prize."

He joined another Nobel winner, poet T. S. Eliot, and several other leading British writers in a plea to the Soviet Writers Union not to victimize Pasternak. The union, a prime organ of government control of Soviet writers, already has expelled Pasternak from its ranks.

Pearl Buck, American author of "The Good Earth" and the 1938 winner, said she was "deeply saddened" that Pasternak was not permitted to accept the prize.

"The rejection, which no doubt was made under pressure, does not alter his world stature as a writer," she added. "It does reflect, most unfortunately, upon his government and his compatriots."

Dr. Anders Oesterling, secretary of the Swedish awarding committee, said Pasternak would still go down in history as the 1958 Nobel Prize winner whether the Russians like it or not.

"Our judgment cannot be changed by what is now happening," he said.

Those Michigan Boys Play for Keeps

We do not know what the impact of the last-minute pressure on Ohioans by outsiders will be as far as this state's showdown on compulsory unionism is concerned.

But unless it is managed more cleverly by the pressure experts than they managed it in 1950 when they were ready to put this state on ice by beating the late Sen. Robert A. Taft, it could backfire.

Eight years ago, they turned on so much pressure with their all-out invasion of Ohio that the natives took down their squirrel guns and began to shoot strangers on sight. That was the election in which Sen. Taft piled up a margin of 430,879 votes against Joseph T. Ferguson and let the air out of the labor union politicians by carrying Cleveland, Akron, Youngstown, Dayton Toledo and Canton.

And that was the campaign in which old John L. Lewis threatened to close down any coal mine that Taft visited and in which red-hot in Youngstown walked out of a factory when the senator walked in. No holds were barred. There was that famous smear booklet against Taft that did what a hundred campaign speeches could not have done by making it clear to fence-sitters that the people from afar who had flocked into this state to put it in the bag were playing for keeps.

They weren't aiming to win a senatorial election in the good old-fashioned spirit of letting voters decide the merits. They were going at it tooth and nail — and they started a reaction that kept them under cover for the next eight years.

THEY'RE BACK AGAIN now with their meat-ax tactics, their fat campaign funds and their undying conviction that Ohio should be put in the same bag with Michigan, where they control the governor and one senator and hope to control both senators after Election Day.

Their two biggest Michigan operators, a couple of labor leaders who hate each other on all other occasions, are working cheek by jowl in the common cause — Walter Reuther and James Hoffa.

They are making themselves available to tell Ohioans what to do to take the forward strides that now have carried Michigan so far toward the brink of disaster that its industries are leaving the state as fast as they can find new locations, preferably in Ohio.

It is not difficult to understand, at that, why Reuther and Hoffa share a sense of responsibility for tying up Ohio and are willing to bury their hatchets until after Election Day. Having put Michigan in a jam they probably think they can mitigate the damage by putting Ohio at the same disadvantage.

It could even be that they have decided to win the Ohio-Michigan game this year their way, instead of waiting for the football players to settle the long rivalry between two great states in Ohio Stadium next Nov. 22.

COME WHAT MAY, Ohioans are braced for one last-minute onslaught. This state can withstand whatever is coming — hot-shots from Hollywood who will tell Ohioans how to vote, even transcribed telephone messages from Mrs. Roosevelt.

It will be a stern test of Buckeye composure, but Buckeye composure was tested before, in 1950. When the test was over, Ohio was still running its own government while was still running downhill and the boundary line between this state and Walter Reuther's stronghold to the north was still discernible.

Egyptian Affair on the Nile

We are puzzled, and some of the statesmen involved in the Aswan Dam on the Nile must be puzzled, too, by the latest funny arithmetic being used to describe the status of this slow-burning issue.

Back in 1956, when John Foster Dulles caused a sensation by lopping off all further talk about U.S. aid for the Aswan Dam, the thing was going to cost 1.3 billion dollars. It was going to be started, presumably, by 200 million dollars from the International Bank, something like 56 million in U.S. foreign aid and a few million dollars from Britain.

When the string was pulled on the whole idea by Secretary of State Dulles in midsummer, the Soviet Union first rushed in with an offer to underwrite the whole thing with a 20-year loan at 2 per cent interest, then rushed out just as fast with a denial that it had offered to do any such thing. A Russian diplomat named Shepilov, who was supposed to have wrapped up the deal, subsequently quit showing up at official functions and is now doing his homework in obscurity.

Nothing much has been said about the Aswan Dam since then, other than the customary spate of criticism of Mr. Dulles by the customary critics, who have blamed him for the deterioration of Middle East security because he turned against the Aswan Dam in 1956.

Then, out of a clear sky, it is announced by Nikita Khrushchev that his government will put up 100 million dollars in bookkeeping credit for the Aswan Dam. This looks like a belated face-saver.

But in the United States, the editorial reaction is that Egypt's President Nasser has sold out to the Soviet Union, lock, stock and damsite.

This is as puzzling as the arithmetic. How could 100 million dollars in bookkeeping credit to an Egyptian government that is struggling with a solvency problem move enough dirt to hold up a gallon of Nile River water? How could 100 million dollars of iffy financing the Egypt to Moscow, imperil the sovereignty of Israel, promote pan-Arabism, or even threaten the cotton belt of the United States? That

Once Over

New auto models are on display all over, with just enough changes to make you lose face if seen in a model nine months old. They come out in October these days, instead of midwinter, which gives you extra time to turn in the car you've hardly broken in. Never before have automobiles seemed so eye-filling.

It is hard to look at a 1959 car and not feel cheap in one you just bought. Orders are reported terrific, with Mr. and Mrs. Public saying, "I wasn't going to buy a 1959 model, but the oil in my 1958 car is low, and one tire needs air."

It's getting so a man in this year's car, driving to a display of new models, hides his car blocks from salesmen so he won't be identified as old-fashioned.

Trend is for the imposing de luxe chariot with built-in opulence and air-conditioned swankiness. Public reaction indicates no decline in the yen to travel like Oriental maharajah, even if bound only for drugstore for a 10-cent stogie.

Some models have swivel seats so owner can get out of auto easily. But the need is for similar seats to get in and out of instalments faster.

The auto has become the backbone of American pursuit of life, liberty and pursuit, of traffic jams. A man used to keep an auto until it wore out. Now he keeps it until the ashtray is filled. We have the only economy in the world that enables a fellow to turn in a slightly soiled car for one that has no dust on it. People are style-conscious.

By H. I. Phillips

They seldom look under the hood and know where the engine is located only when they see a TV commercial. They live in fear a neighbor will show up in a car with rear headlights on a smarter frame.

The recession MUST be over. All those people inspecting the 1959 cars can't be from the waxwords.

Set to music for TV, "Little Women" lost the story, the author and the audience.

Talullah Bankhead at Harry Truman's Democratic dinner in Washington was vitriolic about Republicans. Perhaps she blames them for "Crazy October," the play in which she is closing.

Asked why golf appeals to him, Ike told press conference, "There are three things I like—fishing, hunting and golfing, all for the same reason. They give me exercise, and take me out in the open fields. They induce me to take two or three hours where I can think of the birds, the ball and the wily trout." Like all golfers, Ike is kidding himself. The golf addict is an incurable fanatic. With the birds, bees and trout he can remain a well-balanced normal human being. The golf ball is your enemy. You never trust it. You know it will cross you up, making you look foolish and leaving you in despair. With trout you don't keep score every few yards of squawk about your handicap. You never have to play a fish out of a sandtrap.

Calling the Signals

Nixon's Destiny

By RAYMOND MOLEY

In Edgar Lee Master's lasting and inspired commentary on human life, "The Spoon River Anthology," there appear these lines:

"The earth keeps some vibrations going there in your heart, and that is you."

If a man is fitted by his nature for a certain service, and when there is dire need for that service, circumstances have their way with him. He becomes the subject of inexorable preordination. Only an irrational stubbornness may restrain him.

With Richard Nixon, legitimate ambition runs parallel with circumstances beyond himself. These forces make him the almost certain nominee of his party for the presidency in 1960 and propel him into the vacuum created by the President's lost leadership.

No such predetermination has affected the destiny of a national figure in this country for two or three generations. And Democrats, with half a dozen hopefuls and a divided party, despite a possible exhilarating victory in the election just ahead, may find the 1960 Nixon on a more formidable opponent than they have met since their much more divided and scanty army met TF in 1904.

THAT THIS FACT is well within the consciousness of Democratic leaders, such as that old craftsman Harry S. Truman, is shown by the hysterical hatred they feel for the Vice President and the screams they direct at him.

No one, except those very close to Nixon, realizes the conflicting forces and impulses which have troubled his decisions in the past three years — roughly since the President's heart attack in late 1955.

On the one hand there has been the tradition that the vice president remain an impotent Throbbottom, speaking only through parliamentary rulings in the Senate and in spongy generalities at the dedication of soldiers' homes. There was also loyalty to the man, whom he truly loves and respects, who made him vice president.

On the other hand there was his keen concept of the nation's needs and the inadequacy of the President, and of those whom he chose to surround himself, to understand and meet those needs. Foremost among those needs was and is a strong two-party system with a potent, active Republican organization with a clear philosophy and identity.

Through many months in 1956, Nixon was tortured by the vacillation of the President with respect to a renomination of his running mate. Nixon chose the wise course of silence while his enemies labored to capture the President's mind. Only the overwhelming demands of Party leaders over the country, subtly influenced by Republican Chairman Len Hall, determined the President's reluctant acquiescence.

AS THE FACE of the Eisenhower Administration came to be more and more amorphous and leadership failed after the inauguration in 1957, the demands upon Nixon to take the leadership of the party became more and more insistent. The retirement of Len Hall and cordial dislike of Sherman Adams made this demand much greater.

As the congressional elections of this year approached, the deterioration of the party organization became desperate. All over the country, senators, congressmen, and governors who were up for reelection were crying out. Some chose to ignore the Eisenhower Administration and go their own way.

Regular contributors to the Party shrugged off the solicitations of the National Committee. The politics of the administration toward legislation before Congress wobbled and wavered.

It is folly to say that the Eisenhower Administration prevented reckless and ruinous spending. So far as savings were made, the credit goes to a small coalition of Southern Democrats and conservative Republicans who stemmed the tide to a degree. The President's veto power was only casually used.

Finally, as this campaign has progressed Nixon has emerged. The die is cast. He is on his own, and the vast labor of rallying a defeated and disorganized Party lies ahead for two years to come.

Crucial Two Weeks

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Soviets Will Criticize U.S. Elections

The Russian radio stations probably have their scripts already written for the day after next week's congressional election in the United States. All they have to do is to read the current polls and public opinion surveys published in the American press.

The Soviet broadcast doubtless will say that the American people, by giving the Democrats control of Congress by an even bigger margin than before, have repudiated the Eisenhower administration's foreign policy.

Despite the efforts to keep foreign policy out of the campaign, certain spokesmen of the Democratic party who are prominent members of the senate Foreign Relations Committee have publicly questioned the rights of the President to defend the Quemoy and Matsu islands and have called for congressional action to checkmate the administration.

The Communists in recent weeks have been playing along with their off-again-on-again cease-fire in the Far East but, with the American election over and the headlines telling of a big victory for the opposition party in the United States, the Soviets will unquestionably proclaim in the Communist world and to the peoples of the neutralist countries that Mr. Eisenhower's leadership has been disparaged by a majority of his own people.

THIS POSSIBLE development was, of course, one of the reasons why, even inside the Democratic party leaders like former President Truman warned against making our Far Eastern policy an issue in the current campaign.

Now, however, the fat is in the fire and the statements issued by other Democrats, plus the election results, will be construed as meaning that the Far Eastern policy of the administration may be reversed.

The big question is whether, after next week's election, the Communists will venture to test out or challenge the American government's position by making a military effort to wrest the off-shore islands and possibly Formosa from the control of the Nationalist Chinese.

This could be a miscalculation which might lead to the outbreak of a big war.

The next two or three weeks, therefore, may prove a crucial time in American history because the Communists may decide soon whether they will press their aggression now that "peace at any price" seems to be so popular in this country.

Actually, so far as votes for individual congressmen or senators are concerned the outcome of the election will not have been influenced in any material degree by foreign policy. Congressional elections are primarily local and are affected mostly by economic issues.

But the writers of the Soviet propaganda do not feel any obligation to analyze accurately the significance of American elections.

THE EUROPEAN mind is accustomed anyhow to thinking in parliamentary terms. When the political party of a premier or prime minister is defeated in a general election, it usually means the downfall of that particular leader as well as his party. It is not as widely known in the world as it should be that the constitution of the United States provides for a four-year term for the presidency and that for the next two years the Republican party will control the executive branch, with the power to conduct foreign relations.

The assent of Congress is needed for treaties and appropriations. The cooperation of the Democratic party in the last two years on vital points of foreign policy will doubtless be continued in the coming session of Congress.

The Communists, however, will describe the election results as meaning that the administration has lost a "vote of confidence" at the polls. This particular phrase has wide significance abroad.

IT WILL BE necessary for some of the leaders of the Democratic party to begin preparing now to make statements pledging cooperation with the administration on foreign policy so as to offset the adverse effects of the Communist propaganda throughout the world.

So far as countries like England are concerned, the amenities of courteous comment will be preserved, to be sure, but behind the scenes there will be gratification over the election results. For in Britain the Democratic party of the United States is considered the one that will spend generously lend lavishly and send more American billions abroad than the Republicans might be expected to do.

Though they admire like, many of the British newspapers, for materialistic reasons, were hoping in both the 1952 and 1956 elections that Adlai Stevenson would win the presidency and some of them frankly said so.

What the world will think of the American election results doesn't seem at present important to many voters in this country. Resentments over high taxes, "civil rights" issues and the economic recession unfortunately will sway the voters this time far more than any concern over the fact that, by their votes, they will be injuring the prestige of their own country before the world.

Materialism seems to have superseded idealism—and this, too, in an era which is supposed to have outgrown provincialism and to have achieved instead a worldwide perspective.

Canadian Business

By ERIC DOWNTON

OTTAWA

Inflation, not recession, today is the biggest danger to Canada's economy. This warning is given by government economists and leading businessmen marking a full swing of the economic pendulum since the recession began 18 months ago.

The Conservative Party government here, led by Prime Minister John Diefenbaker, is basing its future plans on the assumption of a steady rise from depression conditions. Full recovery is expected by next summer.

But economists still issue occasional words of caution. For one thing, any sudden drop in world prices for raw mineral ores could severely affect Canada's recovery, since this country depends to a large measure on exports of primary products.

UNEMPLOYMENT also will be abnormally high across Canada this winter, and the problem of relief will be aggravated because many workers will have used up their relief benefits.

Nevertheless, a general advance in the level of business activity is officially expected. Canadian industrial output and exports are at new record levels. So far the 1958 gross national product is running more than two per cent higher than last year's, which was at a all-time high. Officials here forecast a record gross national product this year of about 32½ billion dollars.

Unemployment, now at 4.5 per cent of the labor force, is the lowest since the depression began last year. Its expected rise this winter will be due mainly to the cold weather, which every year means seasonal layoffs in Canada.

With the harvest home, the farming picture is generally cheerful. Spending by farm workers is well ahead of last fall's rate.

OTHER OPTIMISTIC pointers: Stock-market levels have been rising buoyantly. Contracts for house buildings are about double those of a year ago. After declining from the middle of last year until early this summer corporate profits are rising again. Contracts for industrial, engineering and business construction are about 20 per cent above this period of 1957.

The labor situation, however, still troubles the government. Trade-union leaders have rejected Prime Minister Diefenbaker's appeal to "hold the line" and are pushing hard for substantial pay increases in many fields. The government fears that strikes could hinder general economic recovery. Pay raises, which generally are outrunning improvements in productivity, will contribute to inflationary pressures.

Two difficult economic problems face the Canadian government. One is to time anti-inflation measures so that they will not hinder economic recovery. The other is the technical aspect of financing Canada's heavy budgetary deficit, incurred mainly by spending to fight depression and through rising defense costs.

Three Killed In Crash
Of Two Light Planes

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Collision of two light planes over the San Fernando Valley killed three men, including actress Maureen O'Sullivan's 19-year-old son.

He was Michael D. Farrow, first of seven children of the Irish-born actress and movie writer-director John Farrow. The parents are in London, where the elder Farrow is completing production of a picture.

The other victim, flying alone in the other craft, was Donald W. Preneville, 39, of nearby Glendale. The single-engine planes collided at about 600 feet in clear, sunny weather and fell 200 yards apart at opposite sides of a gravel pit near the airport.

Suicide Control
System Proposed

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A nationwide "suicide control" system was proposed today by a public health specialist.

Dr. Edward Press of New York, director of field services for the American Public Health Assn., suggested:

1. Establishment of a kind of "suicide control center" in every community of substantial size. The around-the-clock center would receive reports of all attempted suicides in the area. It would promptly initiate a system aimed at preventing a further attempt in a given case — a system involving various local government agencies.

2. Establishment of a nationwide network of state and local "societies for the prevention of suicides." These would operate something like present organizations aimed at the control and prevention of such conditions as cerebral palsy, deafness and blindness.

Dr. Press outlined his suggestion at the 86th annual meeting of the APHA.

Under his idea, any person attempting suicide would be transferred, after receiving physical treatment, to the psychiatric division of a hospital and kept under constant surveillance for at least 48 hours.

Once the patient were returned to his home, follow-up visits, aimed at rehabilitation would be the responsibility of the local health department.

St. Michael's Greek Catholic Church in Farrell, Pa., was the setting for the Saturday morning nuptials of Miss Hermine Streber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Valent Streber of Youngstown, formerly of Berlin Center, and John P. Vasil, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Vasil of Sharon and the late Mr. Vasil.

The Rev. Aurelius Petrick officiated at the nuptial Mass.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a floor-length gown of rosepoint lace. The basque bodice was accented with iridescent sequins. A sequined panel and border of lace ending in a chapel train highlighted the bouffant skirt. A crown of orange blossoms held her illusion veil. A white orchid and lilies of the valley topped her first Communion prayerbook.

Miss Cecelia Hornock, cousin of the bride was maid of honor. She was attired in a slipper-length gown of coral nylon sheer, and wore a braided crown with a circular veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Cecelia Olenick and Miss Bernice Rushbacky, cousins of the bride, Miss Pauline Warg and Miss Rosemary Henderson were bridesmaids. With their peacock blue colored gowns and matching crowns, they carried bouquets of white carnations.

Russian-Egyptian Aswan Dam Deal Bodes Trouble for U.S.

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles says the Soviet promise to help build Egypt's high Aswan dam is nothing to get terribly excited about.
That's putting the best possible face on a bad situation, for it's hard to see how the United States can get anything but damage from this deal.
True, it's possible the Russians will run into trouble with volatile Egyptian President Nasser, that the dam won't get built, and that Russian-Egyptian relations will turn sour.
More likely the dam will get built and Russian influence in Egypt will increase.
Nasser, who promised the Egyptians a better life and got sidetracked with his outside adventures, needs the dam to make good on his promises.
Soviet Premier Khrushchev announced last week the Soviet Union would not only lend Nasser 100 million dollars for the dam but participate in building it.
So, the American problem with the dam has made a full turn of the wheel. It's been a turn full of shock and surprises.
The result of all of it is to make Nasser more dependent on the Soviet Union than ever. It's one further step the Soviet Union takes into the Middle East.
The story revolves around two things which got jumbled together after Nasser and his friends threw out King Farouk in 1952 and started out to make a new Egypt.
He asked this country for arms and for money to build the dam. The dam was to provide electric power and irrigation which meant more food for Egyptians.
He wanted the arms, he said for defense against Israel.
The United States balked at giving arms. Nasser made it known he'd get the arms, even if he had to get them from the Communists. So he got them from Czechoslovakia.
By this time he was obviously seeking American help by creating fear here the Communists would help if we didn't.
Meanwhile, the United States, after a lot of delay, perhaps some of it needless arranged to give Nasser a loan to build the dam.
But the United States didn't come through with its offer to help on the dam until it saw Nasser wasn't bluffing about getting arms from the Communists.
In July 1956 the Senate Appropriations Committee told the Eisenhower administration not to use any of the foreign aid money voted that year to help Egypt build the dam.
Finally, fed up with Nasser and under pressure from friends abroad not to make the loan to Nasser, the Eisenhower administration withdrew its offer.

The overheated Nasser, in a fury of retaliation, seized the Suez Canal. Not long afterwards Britain, France and Israel invaded Egypt.
They were called off by the intervention of the United States and the Soviet Union. From then until now the idea of the dam was left dangling.
In these past two years Nasser has been busy spreading his influence in the Middle East and creating hatred for the United States.
Despite his victories outside Egypt, it's questionable he could have retained the Egyptians' devotion indefinitely unless he began to make good on his promises of better things at home.
Some optimists no doubt would like to think Nasser may become so involved in his internal improvements that he'll quiet down on his outside adventures.
Probably the opposite will happen, for with visible evidence of big improvements at home the Egyptians are likely to back him more strongly than ever in the trouble he causes abroad — particularly for the United States.

Nuclear Tests To End With Today's Blasts

BULLETIN
ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—The biggest underground atomic explosion ever touched off by the United States blasted up through the top of a mesa today and shot a column of dirt more than 1,000 feet into the air.
The shot rocked the ground where newsmen were stationed 4½ miles away and shook large boulders off the edge of the mesa.
ATOMIC TEST SITE, Nev. (AP)—Nuclear weapons testing today reaches the end of the trail — at least for the time being.
Two shots are scheduled to ring down the curtain on a spectacular testing program that began on this southern Nevada proving ground in 1951.
The reason: President Eisenhower's suspension of the tests goes into effect Friday. How long the ban remains in effect depends on the outcome of talks between the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union.
The series winds up, if all goes well, with explosion of the biggest weapon ever fired underground by the United States, and a somewhat less powerful blast from a balloon at 15,000 feet.
These are the 19th and 20th shots of the current series and will bring the total number of tests here since 1951 to 89.

Windup of testing brought sadness to Atomic Energy Commission scientists and officials.
Col. Ernest Tinson, technical director of Defense Department participation in atomic tests, said: "Lots of us who have been in it a long time sure hate to see today be the end."
When the last of the Los Alamos, N.M., scientific laboratory's test weapons was detonated Wednesday night, "Taps" sounded over a loud-speaker at News Nob observation point.
This series has operated on the most stepped-up schedule of any ever conducted here in order to beat the suspension deadline. Three weapons were exploded on two separate days—the first time this had ever been done here.
Five shots were scheduled Wednesday but two had to be held over until today.

Rescue

174 men below when disaster struck.
The news Wednesday that the 12 men had been located alive electrified the town, scene of two mine disasters in as many years. Church bells rang. Horns honked. Streets emptied. Families came running to the mine in a drizzle of rain, hoping and fearing.
Among them were those who already knew their men had died in the mine.
2 More Bodies Recovered
Even as they waited two more bodies were brought out from elsewhere in the mine.
Kempt already had whispered to his nephew Percy Weatherbee, the man who had trapped the air line with his pick, the names of the men trapped with him — Holloway, Brine, Leadbetter, Hunter, Rushton, Milley, Michniak, Maddison, Lowther, Guthro, McDonald.
"I asked 'How are you?' and Garley answered, 'We're good but we need water badly,'" Weatherbee reported.
The rescuers, some near exhaustion from almost continuous efforts since Thursday, dug again with superenergy.
They clawed and picked at the nearly 60-foot-thick barrier of upturned stone and debris.
As the men dug, warm coffee braced with sugar and vitamins was poured down the air line to the thirsty, trapped men. Finally, a narrow passage was opened and shored up and the imprisoned men began to crawl out.
Kempt First Man Out
Slowly the conveyor rake which normally brings up the coal began to turn, this time to bring the rescued men to the surface. There was an unexplained halt for a time, then, at 2:20 a.m., some 13 hours after the discovery, Kempt was the first man brought out.
Completely covered with a blanket to protect him from the weather and to shield his eyes from the glare of television and newsreel spotlights, he was carried to an ambulance and rushed to the hospital. Waiting at the pit head were his wife and two teen-age children.
The crowd cheered wildly.
The big wheels of the cable-operated conveyor moved at an agonizing pace for the crowd.
Rope barriers kept them back. Floodlights bathed the scene. Doctors waited.
Finally, an hour after Kempt was brought out, the man-carrying rake arrived at the top with Joe McDonald, who had suffered a broken leg, Theodore Michniak and Eldred Lowther.
Then in succession came Bowman Maddison, Levi Miller, Caleb Rushton, Wilfred Hunter, Hugo Guthro, who also was injured, Harold Brine, Joe Holloway Jr. and Larry Leadbetter.
The last four were carried out at 4:02 a.m.
At the hospital the rescued men were given plasma and Dr. J. G. B. Lynch, chief medical officer for the Dominion Steel and Coal Corp., reported all were conscious. "Most of them are just lying there, smoking cigarettes and enjoying the feeling of being human again," he said. "Nothing but their great stamina pulled them through the ordeal."

Rumors spread during the rescue operation that other pockets of survivors had been contacted, but officials of the company said they could not confirm these.

came through the screen door. That's all I can remember."
Clyde Fabry, a stockroom foreman, was treated at the clinic for smoke inhalation.
Lou Gusiele, the plant's traffic manager, said he was seated at his desk when he saw a sudden flash followed by "a terrific explosion." He said the blast apparently was in the carpenter shop.
"I was knocked out of my chair," Gusiele added. "I can't imagine what exploded. The materials we work with are not combustible."

Defense

throughout the trial that McBane is not telling the truth and is merely testifying to "save his neck."
Court again recessed at 10:15 to enable Judge Buzzard to prepare a written charge to the jury at the request of the defense. A written charge is unusual, most charges being given verbally and retained by the jury only in memory.
Atty. Alexander said he wished the panel of eight women and four men to have written interpretations of the law from the judge in their deliberations.
Closing arguments by both sides were delayed pending preparation of the charge. Arguments were expected to be delivered this afternoon, followed by the charge to the jury if time permitted.
Carroll and Cunningham yesterday denied on the witness stand that they had any part in the burglary.
Prosecutor Brokaw, sworn as a witness yesterday, testified that the state has not promised McBane anything for appearing as a state witness.

Marines

was their parents who voiced strong protest to the maltreatment.
The incident came to light while the men were home on furlough. Maj. Donald V. McCloskey, First Battalion training officer, met the recruits' parents in Lisbon Tuesday.
He told them about the investigation that would be held and the fact that the instructors have been relieved of their duties.
Mrs. Paul Koffel of Lisbon, who has two sons in the platoon, said that some parents learned of the rough treatment when they attended graduation Sept. 23.
She was at Parris Island for two full days but got to visit with her sons only 10 minutes during that time, she said.
Since the 1957 trial at Parris Island of Sgt. Matthew C. McKee, who marched six recruits into a tidal stream where they drowned, several drill instructors have been convicted of maltreatment.

The curriculum committee reported on its progress on the courses for the schools.
The next meeting will be held Nov. 26, the place to be announced.

GOOD NEWS IS BAD NEWS — Despite determined government cutbacks on wheat acreage, this year's harvest looms as the largest on record, 500 million bushels more than can be consumed at home or by export. This means that America's mountain of surplus wheat will be hiked up to 1.3 billion bushels. This is enough, says the Department of Agriculture, to fill all our needs for 1959 and still have 300 million bushels for 1960. But already another bumper crop is being predicted for next year. The government at present holds $2.5 billion worth of wheat in storage bins worth $250 million, costing $450,000 a day to maintain.

25,000 Seek Honor of Being First Man In Outer Space

By J. F. TERHORST

WASHINGTON (AP)—Wanted: Nervy young man, preferably bachelor, with scientific background, plenty of common sense, in top physical shape, to risk life on rocket ride to moon. That's the composite picture of the first moon-bound man as sketched by military and civilian space experts and underscored by the Pioneer's lunar probe attempt. But there won't be a need to run advertisements for applicants. An estimated 25,000 persons already have applied for the honor of being the first man in outer space through letters to the Pentagon, to the National Academy of Sciences and to the men involved in running America's space projects.

"WE'VE ACTUALLY stopped counting," said Maj. William Coleman, information director for the Air Research Development Command (ARDC) at Andrews Air Force Base here.

"Besides, we're not planning to pick the man by mail." Selection of the first space traveler will be done after a series of exhaustive physical and mental of high altitude test pilots or young men now at work in missile laboratories.

If a few more years elapse, the honor may go to one of the hundreds of teen-agers now playing the Pentagon with homemade formulas for new rocket fuels.

TESTS ALREADY conducted by ARDC call for a man with these specifications:

Age—ideally, between 18 and 21, the peak of man's physical life, but other requirements will probably dictate someone between 21 and 28.

Education—aeronautic engineering, physicist, pilot or rocket expert, equipped to operate the complicated instruments that will be his only companions on the first space flight.

Mental makeup—unafraid of possible death, capable of withstanding tremendous strain and isolation, "with uncommon common sense to think clearly and make rational decisions in seconds."

Physical traits—trim, average height, body organs capable of withstanding fantastic speeds, wide ranges in temperature, air pressure and gravity.

SCIENTISTS SAY Pioneer's data will help immeasurably in rechecking some of the requirements for man's survival in space.

But it already has proven, they say, that man can probably pass through the high altitude radiation band without serious injury if he does it quickly enough.

Still unsolved is the problem of bringing him back alive—re-entry into the dense, high friction atmosphere of the earth.

"If we knew how the human body's thermostat works, we probably could double man's tolerance of heat," said Dr. Paul Webb, one of the leading ARDC scientists.

Man is able to withstand heat generated within himself better than he is able to withstand heat

Woman Tries to Help Party, Is Hospitalized

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Mrs. Bernice Ashmore, 54-year-old Democratic party worker, tried to climb a tree to do a good turn for the party and wound up in a hospital. She took on the chore of providing table decorations for a Democratic rally Wednesday night.

She had no trouble providing leaves, red berries and wild corn for table decorations. But in trying to get some persimmons, she fell out of a tree and suffered three broken ribs and a punctured lung.

She is reported resting comfortably.

SO THEY SAY

BERLIN (AP)—Communist East Germany claimed today that 340,616 people have left West Germany and West Berlin over the last four years to resettle in the satellite nation.

The Interior Ministry published the figures to counter the publicity given the constant westward flow of East German refugees, which averages more than 4,000 weekly.

ASKS RELEASE OF LEADERS

TUNIS (AP)—Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba today asked French Premier Charles de Gaulle to pave the way for Tunisian-Moroccan mediation of the Algerian rebellion by releasing the top Algerian rebel leader imprisoned in Paris.

The rebel leaders were captured two years ago.

WINS ENDORSEMENT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Representative William H. Ayres (R-Ohio) has won endorsement by the National Committee for an Effective Congress in his campaign for re-election. The committee describes itself as a non-partisan group of editors, political scientists, businessmen and civic and religious leaders. Ayres represents Ohio's 4th Congressional District which includes Medina and Summit Counties.

Record Spending, Revenue Noted

State Government $3 Billion Business, Treasurer Reports

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Treasurer Roger W. Tracy today described state government as a three-billion-dollar business.

His annual report for the book-keeping year ended last June 30 showed over-all transactions totaling $2,834,768,591. The sum included highway improvements.

Tracy said the report showed a 73 per cent increase over state business totaling $1,580,252,395 when he took office in 1951.

The 60-page report will go to state and county officials, public libraries and banks throughout the state. It will be available to schools, civic groups and others.

Analysis of the state's financial picture showed all-time high receipts of $1,421,874,934 and record expenditures of $1,412,893,657. The balance of all funds was $366,147,728 at the end of the fiscal year.

General revenue funds for normal state operations showed that spending exceeded revenues by $45,600,552. But a transfer of $17,214,136 in undivided public utilities taxes cut the decrease to $28,386,416. The result was a drop in the general revenue fund balance during the year from $131,350,536 to $102,964,121. The balance included cash and funds encumbered but not spent.

Sales tax collections, the state's largest single source of revenue, reflected recession inroads. Receipts last year aggregated $227,351,376 against $326,096,469 a year earlier.

Accelerated highway construction accounted for a major share of expenditures. The highway department spent $189,301,068 of its own funds plus $126,105,095 obtained from sale of major throughfare bonds.

Ohio's liquor monopoly produced

$39,279,374 from which $21,300,000 was transferred to the general revenue fund as "profit." Gallonage taxes brought in another 18 million dollars.

Other major income from taxes and fees, in approximate millions of dollars, included: gasoline 123 millions, state universities and colleges 45, motor vehicle and driver

Business Improvement Noted In Third-Quarter Reports

NEW YORK (AP) — American business profits are trailing those of last year by 25 per cent with two out of three firms showing declines for the first nine months of 1958.

But the gap slowly but steadily is being narrowed since the first three months of the year.

In the first quarter of 1958, the decline from the like period of 1957 was 33 per cent with the industrials off 36 per cent.

At the halfway mark, profits looked a bit better — all business running 32 per cent behind the 1957 figures, with industrials down 35 per cent.

Today a better third quarter for many companies gives the nine-month net profits after taxes of the first 461 companies to report a combined total of $5,603,763,000, compared with $7,517,376,000 for the same companies in 1957 a drop of 25.4 per cent.

Declines were reported by 316. Net losses were reported by 23, compared with 13 in the previous year. Red ink was splashed notably over the reports of the auto industry and the Eastern railroads.

Of the 391 industrial firms reporting so far, 276 declined. Combined profits came to $4,415,504,000, against $6,215,264,000 in 1957 a drop of 28.9 per cent.

Utilities mostly went their steady way showing a gain of 7.7 per cent this year over last. The licenses 74, public utilities 36, cigarettes 34, intangibles 31, insurance 28 and beer, wine and malt 23.

State and custodial funds held on behalf of the four retirement systems and the Bureau of Workmen's Compensation totaled $1,131,960,652. Another $247,385,000 in securities were held to secure deposits.

Bonded indebtedness stood at $487,230,000. That sum included World War II bonus bonds, $78,720,000; major throughfare construction bonds $315,480,000; capital improvement bonds, $34,625,000 and Korean bonus bonds $58,450,000.

railroads were down by 38.5 per cent.

In many cases the third-quarter reports were notably improved over the April-May-June quarter.

And tomorrow looks brighter. Many corporate executives seem sure that the last three months of the year will bring a profit gain over the third quarter and further narrow the gap, with the total for 1958 being not too far behind that for 1957.

The decline this year is marked in some of the nation's leading industries. With two of the Big Three auto makers operating at a loss, the decline for that industry as a whole was 66 per cent.

Most steelmakers are behind last year and the profit decline at the three-quarter mark of the year is 44 per cent. Business is looking up for them now and they predict a better final quarter.

Coal companies suffered along with steel and are trailing 1957 by 42 per cent. Nonferrous mining and metalworking companies slipped until recent weeks and are 36 per cent below year ago earnings.

Almost all oil companies are making less this year than last, the gap now being 29 per cent.

On the happier side, the office equipment makers, tobacco companies, food and beverage firms, and airlines join the utilities in reporting better profits this year than last. Most drug companies do too, but three of them had declines enough to pull the total for the 11 down by 4 per cent.

For all ages...at wonderful savings!

Banker Holds Lead In Golf Tourney

PINEHURST N.C. (AP) — J. Woicott Brown 55-year-old Sea Girt N. J. banker held a one-stroke lead going into the second round of the 54-hole Southern Senior Golf Assn. tourney.

In the companion women's tourney Mrs. Reinert Torgerson of Forest Hills, N.Y., entered the final round of the 36-hole competition three shots in front of runner-up Mrs. L. W. Smead of Orchard Lake, Mich.

Brown posted a one-over-par 71 in the opening round.

Runner-up with a 72 was Leon Sikes of Palm Beach, Fla. R. F. Zamiello of Gastonia, N. C., came in third with a 73. Tied with 74s were R. E. Duke of Raleigh, N.C., R. R. Bell of Worthington, Ohio, and Frank K. Stevens of Pinehurst.

Pettit Nets 37 Points Against Minneapolis

By The Associated Press
Bob Pettit still is the same Bob Pettit of last season. For the St. Louis Hawks that is good news. For their rivals in the National Basketball Assn. it is bad.

Pettit tallied 37 points Wednesday night to run his total for three games to 91 as the Hawks defeated the Minnesota Lakers 112-100 and took over first place in the Western Division. Last season Pettit was the league's third ranking scorer with a game average of 24.8 points.

The former Louisiana State All-America hit on 15 of his 23 field goals attempts and paced the Hawks' fourth-period attack as they turned the game into a rout. The score was all-square at 78 going into the final quarter. Then Pettit made 10 of his 37 points to put the game out of reach of the Lakers.

Watson Wins Halfback Job With Redskins

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sid Watson evidently has won the starting left halfback job for the Washington Redskins just in time to face his old teammates, the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Watson played three years for the Steelers before he was dropped last summer and snatched up quickly by the Redskins. The former Northeastern University back sat out some early season games because of broken ribs. But he returned to work last week and seems to have edged Ed Sutton for the starting assignment.

week's 18-0 loss to Stubenville Central Catholic was the first time this year EL was shut out.
The Potters were given a physical beating by Central Catholic.

ENDS RON PRINCE and Pat Copper were both treated Monday at East Liverpool City Hospital for ankle injuries and they are doubtful starters. Their places could be filled by sophomores Tim Archer and Mike Geon.
East Liverpool's backs hit a new low against Central in being held scoreless, playing erratic-like and fumbling.

Bill O'Neill, 170-pound bullback, did not play against Central because of injuries.
Nick Maruraca, who is a guard and has been playing halfback, may shift back to the line Friday. He scored all 16 points in the win over New Philly. Masuraca is the Potters' toughest lineman.

If he returns to the line his place will be taken by Dave Zelch or Joe Thompson. Central's coach said that Zelch and Dave Goodballet, the regular RH, are the best pass defenders he has seen all year.

East Liverpool's best defense is its pass defense. No one has scored against the Potters all year via an aerial.

THEIR BIG WEAKNESS therefore is against a hard running attack, something which the Quakers are endowed with.

O'Neill and Goodballet, the club's best rusher, carry EL's running game while Mackall is their aerial thrust.

Mackall was hurt against Central.
The Potters were battered badly last week and are figured to be considerable underdogs. However, they can be surprising because of their performances against Warren and Toledo Libbey.

Warren won 32-8 but it was just 20-8 after three quarters.
It's apparent EL is down and out but the setting of a game in Salem and with the possibility of an upset, the Quakers shouldn't take the contest too lightly.

Will to Play Well Impels Star

There Is More Than Bulldozing Behind Brown's Grid Efforts

CLEVELAND (AP) — "That was Jim Brown!"
The announcer's voice boomed over the public address system, but most of the people in the vast stadium knew without being told. They had watched the opposing team in a huddle moving down the field—the wrong way—and at the center of the huddle was Cleveland's fullback Jim Brown.

But there is more than bulldozing behind Brown's wholesale attack on National Football League statistical records.
He is fast, one of the best sprinters on the squad. Give him a little space and he's off.
What makes Jim Brown go? The 6-foot-2 former Syracuse star scorns statistics which many cite when they predict he will become one of the greatest stars of professional football. What gives him the greatest satisfaction is not the long touchdown run but "knowing that I played a good game."

Brown in five games has averaged 163 yards per game—more than twice his average last year as a freshman when he led the league in total yards gained rushing. With seven more games to go, he seems to be a cinch—barring injury—to better the record of 1,146 yards Steven Van Buren of Philadelphia set in 1949.

Coach Paul Brown calls Jim the "best draft choice we ever made." Brown points to Jim's muscular physique as part of the answer to the mystery of the fullback's spectacular success.
Jim has "such a terrific high structure that he hurts tacklers," Brown told one sports writer.
Statistics don't count to the fullback player, Jim said.
"I could run 150 yards and look good on Sunday," he added, "but that doesn't mean anything if I come in here on Wednesday and hear him (Coach Paul Brown) saying I missed this assignment or that."

"The thing that makes you proud," Brown continued, "is knowing you did everything right, that you played a whole game without making more than one or two mistakes."
Jim's explanation when asked how he carries enemy players down the field was given with a self-conscious grin:
"They get in each other's way. Besides, there's only so much of me they can get hold of—it doesn't make any difference how much of them there are."

Cardinals Score Win Over Japan All-Stars
NAGOYA, Japan (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals pounded four Japanese pitchers for 11 hits, including two home runs, to crush the Japan All-Stars 7-2 today. It was the Cards' fourth win in five games played thus far in their 16 game tour of Japan.

Right-hander Larry Jackson, the Redbirds' winning pitcher, yielded only five well-spaced hits in hurling seven scoreless innings. The Cards big inning was the eighth when they bunched four hits for three runs.

Battered Irish Will Face Navy

Notre Dame Has Meager 3-2 Record

By The Associated Press
SOUTH BEND, Ind. — May-be coach Terry Brennan of Notre Dame's football team should have been taken at his word when he said before the season "we're not as good as everybody thinks we are."

The battered Irish go against Navy at Baltimore Saturday with a 3-2 record. Pegged by many in preseason reckonings as the team to beat, the Irish now are not even among the top 20 in the AP weekly poll.

Even in victory, Notre Dame has had to fuss furiously. It opened with an 18-0 verdict over weak Indiana, but led only 6-0 until the final 7 minutes. They had a close call over Southern Methodist, 14-6, and came from behind to vanquish Duke 9-7.

Army defeated Notre Dame 14-2, but the Irish were mauled by Pistol Pete Dawkins and Bob Anderson more than the score indicated. Last Saturday the Irish finished courageously, but still lost to Purdue 29-22.

Be ore the season opened, Brennan observed: "We are slow up front. Our depth is not a solid two-deep. And, finally, we have to have a lot of breaks, escaping injury and getting the right bounce of the ball."

Certainly they have not escaped injury. Fullback Nick Pietrosante, guard Al Eucuyer center Bob Scholtz, halfback Jim Croty, quarterback Bob Williams and guard Jim Schaaf have spent costly time on the bench due to ailments.

As for the right bounce of the ball, Notre Dame has fumbled 23 times and lost the ball 13 times in 5 games. For all of last season they had only 28 fumbles and lost the ball 14 times.

Ohio Brothers To Face Each Other In Football

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The Deiderich brothers of Toronto, Ohio, will be on the warpath against each other Friday in the football game between the University of Miami and Vanderbilt.

Harry Deiderich, a Miami junior, is newly promoted to starting fullback on the Hurricanes squad. George Deiderich, Vanderbilt senior plays guard.
The brothers Deiderich both played on the Toronto High School eleven.
Harry said he came to Miami U. because "I got tired of following in my brother's footsteps and I wanted to get where people wouldn't be saying that I was was George's little brother."

Meister, 51, formerly was a passenger agent with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

Grid Contest Winner Discovered As Fraud

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — It appeared that John Raymond Carey, 40, of Troy, had a sure-fire scheme to win the $100 weekly football contest sponsored by the Dayton News.

But today Carey ran afoul of postal authorities and was jailed on a charge of using the mails to defraud.

The News officials said that before the scheme was thwarted Carey had been paid for winning two contests and had won a third, but had not received payment for the third.

The newspaper and postal officials explained the scheme this way:

Deadline for the contest which involves picking winners of major games, is midnight Thursday when the selections must be postmarked. Postal authorities said Carey would mail a blank postcard to himself in the middle of the week, hold it until after the games were played on Saturday, fill in the winners, erase the original address readdress the card to the newspaper and then return the card to the postoffice as misdirected mail.

Roberts Wins Player Award

Hurler Made Top Recovery In '58

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP) — "I felt better and was throwing better." That's how Robin Roberts summarized his 1958 pitching record of 17 victories and 14 losses that won him the Comeback Player of the Year title in the National League.

Roberts got 59 of the 98 votes by members of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America in the annual Associated Press poll. Bob Friend of Pittsburgh got 21 votes and Bobby Thomson of Chicago 13.

The 32-year-old Philadelphia hurler referred to his dismal 10-22 record for 1957 and said it "definitely made me a candidate for the (comeback) honor, didn't it?" The strapping right-hander did not make any excuses after that fiasco. "I just got clobbered. That is all," he said.

But Roberts, in Savannah to look after his seafood packing and restaurant business, had a ready reason for his improvement.

"I suppose I made a comeback this year because I felt better and was throwing better," he commented. "I wasn't throwing any different stuff — not too much anything — but I was throwing better."

"I can tell you one thing. I'm looking forward to next season and I personally hope to do better. I feel fine and I suppose this feeling comes from winning. It makes a lot of difference the way you feel when you're out there winning."

Canadiens Far Ahead of Pack In NHL Race

By The Associated Press
The Montreal Canadiens rapidly are making shambles of the National Hockey League pennant race.

Unlike a year ago when the Canadiens got off to a slow start, the league and Stanley Cup champions have chalked up seven victories and two ties in 11 games this season. They hold a seven-point margin over the Boston Bruins and New York Rangers, deadlocked for second place.

The Canadiens picked up two points Wednesday night by shutting out the Toronto Maple Leafs 5-0 while the Bruins and Rangers played to a 2-2 standoff for their third tie.

Playing their fourth game in five nights, the Canadiens rolled up one of their easiest victories as goalie Jacques Plante posted his second shutout of the campaign. Dickie Moore, Bernie Geoffrion, Jean Beliveau and rookie Ab McDonald took care of the Montreal scoring.

The Rangers apparently had their game with the Bruins won when the clock showed only nine seconds remaining. But Fleming Mackell took three swipes at the puck and with the last one sent the disc bounding past Gump Worsley for a tie.

Grid Games To Be 'Battles of Stars'

NEW YORK (AP) — When can a batter hit a pop fly into his own glove for an out?

The answer: When he lends his glove to a fielder on the opposing team. It happened last May 30 when Gil Hodges of Los Angeles loaned his glove to rival first baseman Bobby Adams of Chicago.

Adams never had played the position before and since both Cub first basemen, Dale Long and Paul Smith, were left-handed, Bobby had to borrow Hodges' mitt. In the fourth inning, Adams used Hodges' glove to catch Gil's infield fly.

There were many other odd happenings in organized baseball during the 1958 season.

Danny Murtaugh, Pittsburgh manager, rushed onto the field toward Umpire Jocko Conlan. Many fans wondered about the sudden action because the Pirates were leading 14-4 in the seventh inning.

Murtaugh had a ready answer. "I really didn't have anything to protest about. Jocko wanted to know what was wrong. Nothing, I told him. This game is being televised back to Chester (Pa.) and I wanted my wife and kids to get a look at me." Danny lives in Chester.

There's the one about the delay in a Pioneer League game at Missoula, Mont.

Fans began to get fidgety when game time passed without an appearance by the umpires. A quick investigation showed that the three umpires were in their dressing room. The only trouble was that a prankster had locked the door from the outside, with the Umps on the inside.

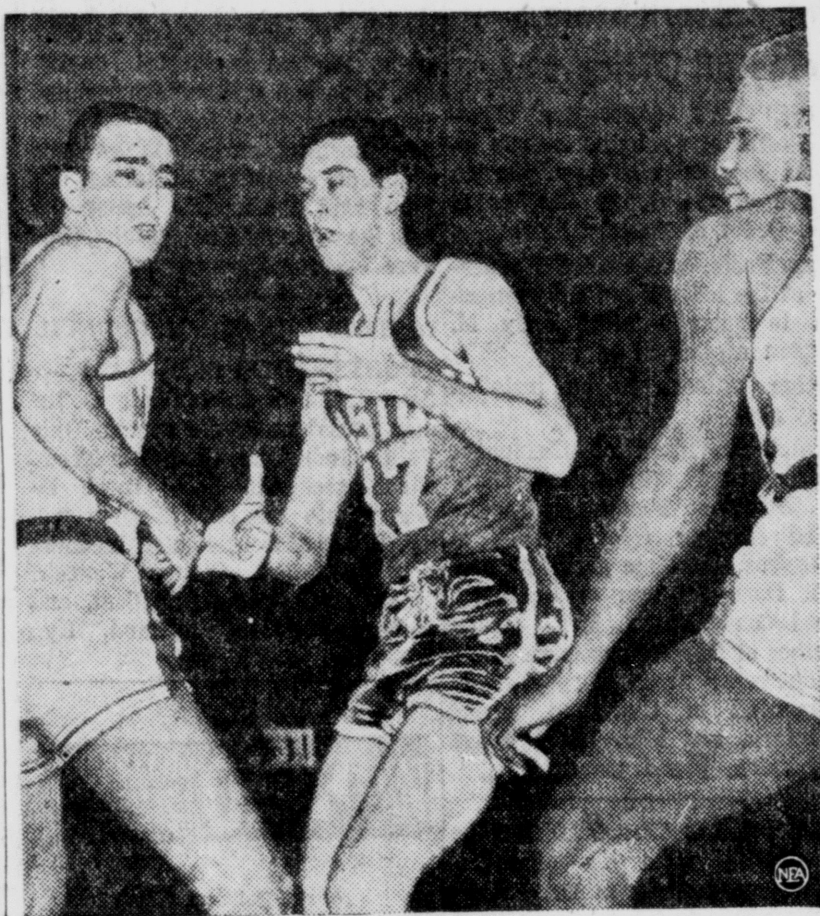

Roy Hawes of St. Paul used his head in a game against Indianapolis. A vicious line drive caromed off Hawes' glove and struck him on the head, caromed into the air and was caught by the second baseman. Hawes was stunned but walked from the field.

Catcher Dick Kinaman of the Srinivas, Calif., team wore his full catching equipment when he came to bat in the game of May 3. Although the umpires made him shed the equipment, Kinaman had good reason for the protection. He had been hit by pitched balls seven times in four previous games.

Three New Offense Leaders Bob Up In College Football

By The Associated Press

Three new individual offense leaders bobbed up in major college football this week, all taking over with spectacular performances.

Sonny Randle of Virginia nabbed nine tosses last week and raised his season total to 32, the most any player has made in six games since 1952. This despite the fact Virginia's ace passer, Reece Whitely, has been sidelined with injuries the past two weeks.

Bill Austin, Rutgers' man of all work, scored three times against Lehigh last Saturday, bringing his total to 66 points. He now has scored more touchdowns in five games than any major college player in recorded history — 10. Howard Cook of Colorado is in second place with 53 points, including eight touchdowns.

Dale Hackett of Wisconsin took over the punt-return lead with a 64 yard touchdown gallop which blotted Ohio State's perfect record with a tie.

Only Georgia's Bob Walden, with a 47.4-yard punting average; Drake's Tom Newell, with 278 yards on kickoff returns, and Don Black, New Mexico's spectacular pass catcher who has averaged four points for every catch, retained their leads in their respective departments last week.

Bill Kreitling of Illinois, who has covered 426 yards on only 13 pass receptions for a 32.8-yard average, is in a class by himself in that department.

Black caught three passes against Wyoming Saturday. Two of them were for touchdowns, bringing his six-game record to seven touchdowns in 10 receptions.

By throwing for two touchdowns, in addition to scoring three himself, Austin brought his touchdown-responsibility total to 17 in five games.

Only two others this season have contributed even half as many points as Austin in the touchdown-responsibility department. Cook has been responsible for 71 points and Bill Holsclaw of Virginia Tech for 58. Austin's total is 114 including six extra points.

Usually Aloof From Politics, Ike Hitting Hard at Democrats

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower stays pretty much aloof from politics and name-calling most of the time and then suddenly cuts loose with a slashing attack on the Democrats during a political campaign.

That's one of the differences between him and former President Truman, who was a full-time politician. So, although other factors are involved, the Nov. 4 elections may provide some part of the answer to this question:

Does a president have to play politics full-time to be effective as the political head of his party?

Truman, as president and head of the Democrats, belabored Republicans the year around, naming names, banging away as the mood seized him, which was often. But at least he built up in the public mind an image of Republican obstructionism.

So he was completely consistent when, as the odds-on favorite to lose in the 1948 presidential campaign, he gave the Republicans a whistle-stop ripping across the country and back again.

That year the Republicans controlled Congress and Truman never let the country forget it. He branded them as the "do-nothing Congress." He not only won election for himself but could claim credit for helping the Democrats win too.

Not so with Eisenhower. Although he's political head of the Republicans, he takes pretty much an above-the-strife attitude between election campaigns.

If he hasn't liked what the Democrats did in Congress — and they've controlled it since 1954 — he's had plenty of chance to keep up a drumfire against them the year around.

But he's been very careful—between campaigns — not to offend anyone. He had good reason, of course, since 1954 to be careful not to bang too hard on the Democrats.

He has had to depend on them to help put through his programs when some of his own Republicans turned their backs on him.

But now suddenly in this congressional campaign, as in the congressional campaign of 1954, he becomes very political-minded and goes after the Democrats with a hot spear.

This campaign probably will provide the last of extreme anti-Democratic talk from Eisenhower, unless he can be persuaded to take to the road just once more in the 1960 campaign. He goes out of office two years from now.

Newspaper surveys and professional polls indicate that this year — just as in 1954 when Eisenhower campaigned for them—the Republicans once more are trailing the Democrats for control of Congress.

Since the voters' minds may be already made up in favor of the Democrats, Eisenhower's late efforts to save the Republicans may not be enough.

For that reason it will be impossible after election day to say flatly just how effective—or ineffective—he was.

But one thing is sure, even if Eisenhower as political head of the Republicans can't save them for defeat: he's been a highly effective politician where he himself has been concerned. Meaning: when he sought election for himself.

His very nonpolitical tactics — between campaigns—have helped build up in the public mind the image of a man standing above the name-calling of politics and interested primarily in the country as a whole, regardless of party.

He won overwhelmingly in 1952, carrying his party along with him to last Congress. That was the last time. By 1954 the voters were making a big distinction between him and his party.

In 1956 he re-elected him to the presidency but left Congress in control of the Democrats.

Many Odd Happenings Marked Baseball During 1958 Season

By The Associated Press

Some of Saturday's more important football games could turn into a battle of "stars" answering the inevitable "who is best?" question.

Innocently, the schedule-makers have brought together many of the top-flight college performers this weekend.

College of the Pacific makes its second trip over the Rockies in two weeks, meeting Boston College in Boston. It is also bringing Dick Bass, the nation's No. 1 rusher with 647 yards on 79 rushes in five games.

The Eagles have their ace quarterback and passer Don Allard returning for the first time since he was injured in the Syracuse game, a month ago. He was BC's big offensive gun last year.

Two quarterbacks promise plenty of fireworks when Wake Forest moves to Clemson for their Atlantic Coast Conference battle. Wake Forest is counting on Norm Sneed, 14th in the country in total offense with 596 yards in six games.

Clemson has Harvey White back in harness after being injured in the loss to South Carolina a week ago. White has been among the top five ACC offense leaders all year.

Also in the ACC, Alex Hawkins, South Carolina's rumbling half-back, pits his prowess against Maryland's quarterback Bob Rusevian, the nation's 14th ranked passer.

Hawkins led the Gamecocks to their 26-6 upset of Clemson a week ago with 57 yards in 12 carries and one touchdown. Rusevian has racked up 387 yards with 41 completions and two touchdowns for the Terps.

The big game in the Big 10 also could turn into a great offensive duel with Ohio State's Bob White and quarterback Frank Kremblas facing Northwestern's signal caller Dick Thornton and halfback Ron Burton.

White, the OSU fullback, leads the Big 10 in rushing with 151 yards in 46 carries for a 3.3 average. Nationally, he ranks sixth with 450 yards in 122 carries, and is among the leaders in scoring with 43 points on eight TDs.

Kremblas is fifth in the conference's passing list, fourth in total offense and fourth in punting.

Thornton is third in passing and fifth in punting in the conference, while Burton ranks 14th nationally in rushing offense with 396 yards and has scored 50 points on eight touchdowns and two extra points.

Pitt's Ivan Tomic and Bill Kaliden will match their passing with Syracuse's Chuck Zimmerman in a top Eastern battle. Navy's Joe Tranchini will pit his aerial game against Nick Pietrosante's running attack for Notre Dame.

Calhoun Gets Nod Over Franz Szuzina

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — "This guy is shorter than most. He made it tough for me."

Thus did Rory Calhoun, high ranking middleweight, concede he hadn't looked as sharp as he might Wednesday night in winning a unanimous 10-round decision over Germany's Franz Szuzina in their televised fight.

All three officials made the 24-year old minister's son from White Plains, N.Y., the winner by a wide margin but Calhoun wasn't satisfied with his performance.

Referee Joe Palmer, who took the seventh round from Rory because of low blows, scored it 7-2-1. Judge Harold McGrath had Calhoun winning 9-1 and Judge Charles Di Salva 8-2. The Associated Press card was 7-3 for Calhoun.

Calhoun spent most of the evening slamming away at long range, but he also was able to contain Szuzina's usually strong body attack in the linches. There were no knockdowns, but Rory slipped to the canvas four times. He said he fell over his own or Szuzina's feet trying to set up Franz.

AKINS TO DEFEND TITLE
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Virgil Akins of St. Louis has formally agreed to defend his world welterweight title in a 15-round bout here Dec. 5 against Don Jordan of Los Angeles.

The champion will get 40 per cent of the gate and Jordan 20 per cent. Olympic Auditorium matchmaker George Parnassus announced the signing of the fighters Wednesday.

Election Campaigns Enter Final Days

Butler Demands 'Rights' Support;
Nixon Heading for Talks in Alaska

By The Associated Press
Vice President Nixon returned to the Corn Belt today as he headed west on his final bid for election of a Republican Congress in next Tuesday's voting.

Nixon, en route to a weekend of campaigning in Alaska, stopped overnight in Chicago before traveling to Fort Dodge, Iowa, and Wichita, Kan., today.

His Friday schedule takes him to Billings, Mont., and Everett, Wash., before he heads for Alaska. Voters of the prospective 49th state will name two U.S. senators and a representative in a special election Nov. 25.

Campaigning in California Wednesday night, Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler renewed his suggestion that Democrats who won't support a civil rights plank in 1960 get out of the party.

Butler told a news conference at West Covina that Democrats who couldn't go along with such a plank should either stay in their party and try to put over their own viewpoint—or support a Republican ticket or a third-party movement or stay home and not vote.

At Greenwich, Conn., GOP National Chairman Meade Alcorn ripped anew into what he called Democratic "radicals."

"Would you rather have government in the hands of the left-wing gang, or see it in the hands of the Republican party?" he asked a GOP rally.

President George Meany of the AFL-CIO appeared to hit mostly at Republican campaigners in telling a nationwide radio audience he wanted to "puncture the big labor political scare balloon of 1958."

But he mentioned neither parties nor candidates by name in assailing what he called campaign talk that organized labor is trying to take the nation down the road to socialism. Speaking from Washington, Meany said:

"The hidden purpose behind this cry of socialism, and such phrases as leading America 'down the left lane' is to plant in the minds of the American people the idea that labor is pro-Communist.

"This is an unforgivable and completely unjustified trick."

With the campaign going into its final days, President Eisenhower prepared to wind up his speechmaking with a nationwide radio-television talk in Baltimore Friday night.

The White House announced that the President and Mrs. Eisenhower will vote Tuesday at Gettysburg, Pa., and then return to Washington to receive the election returns.

Nixon voted Wednesday before flying to Chicago. Aides said he voted the straight Republican ticket on his California absentee ballot. But they declined to say how he voted on a right-to-work referendum which has divided major California GOP candidates.

Mrs. Nixon and the two Nixon daughters—Pavicia, 12, and Julie, 10—fly to Seattle Friday to join the vice president for his flight to Juneau, Alaska, Saturday. It will be the first campaign trip for the Nixon girls.

Kennerdell of Cleveland, grand secretary, and Mrs. Hazel Beach of London, grand treasurer.

RULED DEATHS ACCIDENTAL
DAYTON, Ohio — Montgomery County Coroner Dr. Robert

A. Zipp has ruled William N. Bostack, 25, and Barbara Jo Anderson, 15, had accidental deaths due to carbon monoxide poisoning. The couple were found last Sunday morning parked in an auto south of suburban Kettering. Dr. Zipp said the couple apparently left the auto engine running and were overcome by fumes.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

CONCORD, N.H. — An ex-Marine is returning home from the wars — the political wars. For him there need be no worry that silence will drown out the cheers of old re-echoing off the craggy mountains of familiar places.

For Sherman Adams the cheers are still there. In the state he left to sound the first hurrah for Dwight Eisenhower, the silver frost will melt on Adams' face. Here he is no political issue. No one of the opposition runs against him. Here his neighbors want him. They cheered 'round and 'round last Thursday night by the hundreds when his name was mentioned casually at a rally which was as political as the National Assn. for Conservation of the Whooping Crane.

BUSY SQUAW—Grinding corn Indian style is Mary Brown of Phoenix after being chosen Princess of the Sunburst Tribe in Arizona's Valley of the Sun resort region.

ski tow. But Thursday evening some 700 townsfolk did come together for a celebration, the nature of which is not important here.

These were men and women from the down road textile mills, the huge printing plant, the little stores, and the new plants making electronic equipment. They were working people.

SO NON-POLITICAL was the assemblage that the Republican gubernatorial candidate, Wesley Powell, sat around the corner in his store front campaign headquarters but would not deprecate the moment with an appearance and handshake.

Yet when the speaker of the evening noted that the last time he was in Concord he had talked with Gov. Adams, the house fell in. Jimmy Durante couldn't have torn it up more — with or without old Clayton and Jackson.

Later the visitor from New York asked political questions — would l'affaire Adams lose this Republican stronghold? cores said, "no." Not even the labor people and the Democrats were using the issue against the GOP.

What would Mr. Adams be doing now that life begins anew at 60 for the former civilian chief of staff? He would not stay long in his home state was the report.

There were those who had talked with President Eisenhower at Gettysburg not too long ago. They had been told that Sherman Adams was seriously considering offers from several governments to aid development of their foreign trade.

ONE REPORT had it that the "country involved could be Morocco or some neighboring land." They have big funds for the development of trade and tourist relations with the U.S. and other nations.

These underdeveloped countries have pointed out that this could mean safe investment of American capital, higher standards in the homeland and new jobs in the U.S.

In such pursuits Mr. Adams has had considerable experience. He had always been for reciprocal trade and loans to foreign lands.

One "neighbor" said it might go the other way. He pointed out that back in 1947 Mr. Adams represented the American pulpwood industry. For two years he pushed for good trade relations with Canada.

This was really an Adams' specialty — foreign trade relations. So there might be some large American corporation seeking to develop contacts with other lands.

It should not be forgotten that Mr. Adams still is one of the nation's most influential men. For at least another two years, he can reach the President of the United States. For another two years, he still can reach some of the President's intimates whose financial interests are worldwide.

AND WHAT DID the labor people think? Some of them, speaking off-the-record, recalled that one of the first moves Sherman Adams made as governor was to set up a joint committee to bring new industry into the state.

When Adams took over in '51, just about the time he began promoting Gen. Eisenhower for president, he found plenty of time to call in the state's most influential businessmen.

They launched the New Hampshire Business Development Corp. They looked at the ancient plants, some of which may have been ramparts against the British, and encouraged new construction to replace the relics.

In seven months they had a fund of four million dollars to promote the prosperity of the state.

Today there are mighty few jobless, especially for a textile workers' area.

They point out the new plants as you drive by and tell you that Sherman Adams is mighty well-come back home.

AAA Cites Dangers Of Motorbike Riding

If you have a 14 or 15-year old in the family who wants to learn to drive a motorbike or scooter, think twice before you give parental consent, advises A. P. Morris, manager of the Columbiana County Automobile Club.

"Ohio law for the past year has permitted licensing of operators of 14 to 15 years old for motor scooters and motorbikes where parents consent. Although one-fifth of the applicants have failed their examinations, still many thousands have qualified," the automobile club reports.

According to the state highway patrol, 235 motorbike accidents have been reported in Ohio during the first seven months this year, with six deaths. Officials point out that the young bike operator has no protection when his two-wheeler tangles with a full-size car or truck.

Elect John W. (Jack) Peterson

"Man In The Background"

CLERK of COURTS

The "Man in the Background" now steps to the front. A busy man for many years. A tireless worker. Always on the job. Very little glory for his efforts.

You, the public, you on a jury! Remember this man? He was the man in the background. Working away on a typewriter. Taking care of his job was he.

So often was said, "See Jack". So many he assisted. Little praise was given at the time.

He has waited a long time for this. He never pushed. He respected others. He's earned his rightful place. He deserves your vote in the election Tuesday. Let him have the office for which he's worked so hard.

In his hands this office has been entrusted for many years. May in his hands, it remain. Put "Jack" Peterson where he belongs—in the front as "Clerk of Courts".

An exciting new kind of car! Makes history by making sense

The car you hoped would happen! Looks right, works right. Priced right. Luxurious without overdoing it. Roomy without useless length. Powerful without hogging gas. Styled to last. Soundly engineered. Solidly built. Priced with the most popular three!

Add it up. You get solid new distinction rivaled only by cars costing much more! Bold new vertical grille. Strong new lines. Graceful new rear flight deck.

You get beautiful new efficiency. Wonderfully spacious interiors—with less length outside. Six adults ride in comfort, but Edsel's compact 120-inch wheelbase fits any normal garage, swings easily in and out of tight spots.

You get lots of go for little gas. Pounds and pounds of useless car weight are gone. And four new Edsel engines are here! Including a thrifty six with a powerful test track record. And a new kind of economy V-8 that uses regular fuel and wrings big mileage from every ounce! You get all the magnificent quality that marks a superior car. Super-smooth ride. Big, self-adjusting brakes. Luxurious carpeting, electric clock and four other customary "extras"—at no extra cost.

Yet the challenging new 1959 Edsel is priced with the most popular three! For example, you'll find that a new Edsel Ranger is priced almost exactly the same as many models of Chevrolet, Plymouth and Ford. See for yourself—this comparison is actually based on the factory suggested list prices.

It's easy to see why this is the car that makes history by making sense. The new kind of car you've been waiting for. See it and drive it now at your Edsel Dealer. Ten history-making new models!

Food Prices
Are Likely to Remain Steady

Seasonal food price declines accounted for much of the reported small decline in food cost in the government cost of living index for September.

Ed Watkins, local market information agent with the Agricultural Extension Service, reports although there is no immediate sign of any sharp increases in food cost, neither is there much likelihood of a decline in food prices. Even though farm commodities prices should decrease, as they have in the last few months, consumers will not necessarily benefit from lower prices in the retail markets.

One reason for less relationship between farm prices and retail prices is increased marketing cost. These increased costs may be due to more fancier packaging, more services such as preparing food in a table ready or ready to eat form, increased payroll cost, and many other factors.

Milk is a good example of why food costs are slow to decline. The farm price of milk today is virtually the same as it was 11 years ago. The retail price however is 1-5 higher. The difference is almost entirely in marketing cost.

There are three major steps in the trip from the farm to the consumer: assembling milk from farms, taking it to the dairies; processing, bottling; and distributing it to the consumers.

The assembly operation now cost about 1.2 cents per quart or 5 per cent of each $1 spent for dairy products. Processing and bottling costs are about 4.3 cents per quart or about 18 per cent of the dairy $1. Distribution cost will run up to 5.6 cents per quart if the milk is delivered to the home or 23 per cent of the dairy $1.

Farmers find they are receiving only about 45 per cent of the consumer's dairy bill although their costs have risen steadily the last few years. The net result has been that farmers dairy income per hundred pounds of milk shipped has remained about the same while costs have steadily gone up. Practically all of the relatively small increase in the retail price of milk during the last 10 years has been absorbed by increased marketing cost.

Thinking
It Over

By Robert L. Dieffenbacher, D.D.

The next pay check is probably America's cause for using our knowledge of arithmetic. Millions of people figure how much they will earn for their efforts since the previous payday. Other multitudes will add, subtract and divide whole sheets of figures to determine the use of the forthcoming earnings.

Few people spend even a fraction of their "figuring time" in religious effort. They give little attention to scheduling their daily minutes for prayer, spiritual development, religious education and service to others.

Until we begin to set aside time, energy, and effort to religious purposes, we cannot expect to make "ends meet" spiritually. The godly budget is just as important as paying our financial obligations.

The sheep receives the most notice of any animal in the Bible. It played an important part in the religious, civil and domestic life of the ancient Hebrews.

The world's only gorilla born in captivity is "Colo", born at the Columbus, Ohio zoo.

While New Moon Rocket Is Being Prepared

Data from Pioneer May Solve Mysteries

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Another moon rocket is being cocked at Canaveral, but, meanwhile, scientists here are hopeful that the first unsuccessful attempt to circle the moon will give new clues to vexing scientific mysteries.

The information Pioneer transmitted before it burned up over the Pacific may:

Tell us whether space is as empty as we think it is.

Give us new knowledge about the magnetic storms which frequently disrupt radio communications through the world.

Tell us whether space travel is possible — or whether the heavy radiation belt extends so far into the heavens that space travel could be just a dream in our lifetime.

Possibly verify a scientific theory that even low-powered radios will transmit enormous distances through outer space, opening vast possibilities for "space communications."

THE FULL ANSWERS—If Pioneer transmitted them — won't be known for some time. Scientists have literally miles of tape to decode from a series of tracking stations.

But one thing is certain: there's a wealth of material. Pioneer's transmitters worked clearly from the time the rocket took off until it burned up in the earth's atmosphere 43½ hours and 158.44 miles later.

Preliminary Pioneer data has already given a clue to some of the answers. First reports indicate the dangerous radiation belt begins to die down after 5,000 or 6,000 miles.

There's a hint, from the excellent reception to Pioneer's radios throughout its long journey, that in fact low-powered radio broadcasts carry great distances in space with little loss in volume. So far there hasn't been enough decoding of Pioneer tracking station recordings to learn much about the emptiness of outer space or the causes of magnetic storms.

But however much or little the data from Pioneer, scientists did learn from this flight which failed that they have the know-how to send new Pioneers to the moon soon, and eventually on to Mars, or sailing millions of miles through outer space gathering scientific data.

THERE ARE INDICATIONS these new rockets may be able to transmit back messages from these space ships a million or more miles away, even with radio equipment not much better than we now produce.

The errors that caused Pioneer to plummet back to earth were errors not difficult to correct. What's required is rejiggering the instruments to put the missile on a more precise path and possibly a raising of the temperature inside the rocket (which perhaps can be done simply by a different color combination on the outside that would absorb more heat from the sun and radiate less.

THE FOURTH STAGE of the U.S. moon rocket Pioneer is shown being attached to the third stage. Atop this went the payload package of instruments that sent vital new information back to earth.

Technical men close to the project say that if they are given the go ahead, they can be ready for a new shot early the first week of November when the moon is again in the best position for a shot.

Pennsy Uses Atomic Switch Light in Yards

ALTOONA, Pa. — Atomic energy moved out of the laboratory and onto the right of way of the Pennsylvania Railroad for the first time here today when the railroad installed a nuclear-powered switch light which will stay illuminated for 10 years without refueling.

The self-contained lamp, measuring about a foot square and weighing 44 pounds, was welded to a switch stand at an industrial siding near the railroad's test laboratories here.

It is lighted by four small glass bulbs, which contain radioactive Krypton 85 gas. Each bulb is coated inside with a zinc sulphide phosphor and this glows as beta particles from the Krypton strike it.

The bulbs will lose intensity gradually over the years as the beta particles in the Krypton are dissipated but it will be about 10 years before an appreciable difference takes place.

The nuclear lamp installed today is being tested primarily to determine the adequacy of its light intensity, which is somewhat less than electric and kerosene switch lamps now in use, the railroad said. The nuclear light is visible from about 500 yards away at night.

Bread Wins Friends with Men

BY CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

When a husband asks a bunch of his pals to a "for men only" evening, the distaff side usually prepares the snacks. If you want to win friends and influence people, you might consider this offering that most men like.

Three simple foods make it up: sliced ham, sliced Swiss and cheddar cheese, bread. They're accompanied by ready-prepared or homemade mustard and such relishes as celery, olives and pickles. The men make their own hearty sandwiches.

But here's the real enticement: the bread is home-baked and fresh from the oven. The acquaintance who originally convinced us this combination was man-bait, arranges her kitchen life so that the loaf comes out of the oven shortly before it's eaten. She says the old-fashioned aroma wafting through the house puts her husband's men friends into a wonderful mood of anticipation and the collation never fails to be a success.

No kneading's necessary for this loaf: it's texture is more crumbly and less elastic than the rye flour bread you buy. Many large food markets carry the packaged whole rye flour called for and your kitchen shelves probably hold the caraway seed that adds to the loaf's flavor and crunchiness.

Rye Batter Bread

Ingredients: 2 1/2 package active dry yeast, 1 1/4 cups warm (110 to 115 degrees) water, 2 tablespoons light molasses, 1 cup whole rye flour, 2 1/2 cups sifted white flour, 2 teaspoons salt, 1 tablespoon caraway seeds, 2 tablespoons soft shortening.

Method: Sprinkle the yeast over the warm water in a medium-sized mixing bowl. Add molasses, half of both the rye and white flour, salt, caraway seeds and soft shortening. Beat 2 minutes, using medium speed of electric mixer or 300 vigorous strokes by hand. Scrape sides and bottom of bowl often. With a mixing spoon, blend in the remaining rye and white flour until smooth—1 to 1 1/2 minutes. Scrape batter from sides of bowl.

Cover with a cloth and let rise in a warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk—about 30 minutes. Stir down batter by beating about 25 strokes. Spread batter evenly in greased loaf pan (9 by 5 by 3 inches); batter will be sticky.

Let rise in warm place (85 degrees; free from draft), until edge of batter reaches 1 inch from top of pan—about 30 minutes. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven 45 to 50 minutes.

To test loaf, tap the top crust; it should sound hollow. Remove at once from pan to wire rack. Brush top with a little melted butter. Serve fresh, warm or cold.

Household Hints

Cocoa and chocolate both come from a tropical tree called the cacao. Cocoa beans, about the size of almonds, grow in hard-shelled pods. Chocolate contains more fat or "cocoa butter" than does the cocoa powder, although both are made from the beans.

Both the skin and the seeds of young summer squash may be eaten.

Both celery salt and paprika are good additions to a cream sauce for vegetables, meat, poultry or fish. Nice for flavor and color!

Note to brides: When you want to measure one tablespoon of a dry ingredient, dip the measuring spoon into the food and then level off with a spatula or case knife. When you remove baked custard from the oven take the cups out of their water bath immediately and place cups in a pan of cold water to cool quickly.

First execution in the history of California prisons was at San Quentin, March 3, 1893. Earlier capital punishment was on the county level.

California's first state prison was the barkentine "Euphemia," an old ship converted in 1851 and moored off San Francisco.
